Letter from the President:

Dear Artists

Jimmy and I are looking forward to being up North for the summer. Although we are not in Florida we will continue to have Virtual meetings and workshops throughout the summer. I am looking forward to seeing you at them.

Our committees will be working hard during the summer on all the plans that we have for you for the coming months no matter what the season.

We need someone to take over a couple of things. Carol Brody retired from doing the Ask the Watercolor Doctor column. I'm sure there is someone out there who can do it as well. Please let Lee Krull know if you are interested in writing this column for us.

We would like to have an Interview with a Member column. We have wonderfully talented artists in this group. Let's start meeting them and their art. We need someone to head this and form a committee to do the interviews.

Looking forward to seeing you on Zoom for our May 11th meeting.

Happy Painting!

Adrienne Walker, President PBWS

Palm Beach Watercolor Society MEET OUR MAY DEMO ARTIST

Michael Holter

May 11th, 2023, Member Meeting
This will be held via Zoom

Michael says, "My work is impressionistic. I like to represent people or places and allow the painting to evolve from the recognizable. The challenge is to balance the care needed to make the representation interesting... and perhaps believable, with the freedom, looseness and painterly quality that makes a painting so expressive."

Michael Holter is an American Watercolorist who has rapidly become known for his dynamic watercolor portraits and landscapes and for his engaging workshops. After a successful career in art education, advertising design and creative leadership, Michael began focusing more seriously on his painting in 2011.

Michael is a signature member of the Salmagundi Club of New York and has quickly become a signature member of The American Watercolor Society, The National Watercolor Society, The American Impressionist Society, The Watercolor Honor Society, The Southwestern Watercolor Society, The Society of Watercolor Artists, The Transparent Watercolor Society, and several others.

His work has received numerous awards, published in the NorthLight books, issues of Slash 16 through 21 and has been selected four times to the Fabriano (Italy) Watermedia Competition and also The World Watercolor Competition in Taiwan. He was one of three U.S. artists selected to travel to China in 2019 for the International Watercolor Week Exhibition and plain air painting activities in Shanxxi Province, Beijing, and Quindao. He has been on the teaching faculty of the 2018, 2019, 2023 Plein Air Convention and Watercolor Live 2020 and 2022. Michael has released three DVDs from Creative Catalyst Productions, 7 Steps to Landscape Painting in Watercolor, 7 Steps to Portraits in Watercolor, and Watercolor Landscapes from Photos.

Although Michael has been painting most of his life, his work experience spans a wide range of creativity, from high school art teacher, advertising creative director and businessman. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Art Education and an MA in Visual Communication.

We have video recordings of monthly meeting demos.

If you are a member, there is no fee for the monthly meeting demo recordings. The fee for guests is $25 for one meeting demo recording.

What do J.Jill and Peggy Guggenheim have in common?

Both will be featured at our big fund raiser next year. Yes, we will again be having a great luncheon at the Lakeside Terrace in March 2024.

J.Jill will be treating us to a beautiful spring fashion show while we dine on delicious treats.

Then our very own Mary Martinez will share with us the fun filled facts she has gleaned about the trail blazing and unconventional art collector, Peggy Guggenheim.

Marguerite "Peggy" Guggenheim was an American art collector, bohemian and socialite. Born to the wealthy New York City Guggenheim family, she was the daughter of Benjamin Guggenheim, who went down with the Titanic in 1912, and the niece of Solomon R. Guggenheim, who established the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation. Wikipedia

We will also have a chance to vie for wonderful prizes with our raffle sales.

This last part can only happen if all of our members go to their favorite stores, restaurants and other services and ask for donations!

Contact Caryn Kabat for letters of introduction to take with you when patronizing these places. She can be reached at carkab@aol.com or 561-523-9655.

The money we make at the luncheon helps us to provide grants to area schools for art supplies and to give graduating art majors scholarships to continue their art studies. We also would like to help the Very Special Arts with a contribution; so ladies and gentlemen please help us out!

This is what makes our organization different from other like groups.

We have three scholarship recipients. All are graduating seniors going on to college to major in ART:

Calvin Trudeau, David Levinson, and Lauren Holloway

Honorable Mention
From Another Time
Mary Martinez

“It was a pure delight and honor to be the judge for the Palm Beach Watercolor Society’s exhibition at the BRiC. Talent was clearly displayed by all the artists. There was a wonderful array of water-based mediums and techniques, intimate subject matters, wonderful compositions, mindful titles, and a pure love of art for art sake!”

For Every Season by Gail Butters-Cohen: 1st

So painterly, and intimate the viewer is brought right in front of the truth. Something is coming, being birthed into our world, and we must take care and protect “this.” Even when our society may be sad or hurting this image reminds us of being human and how magnificent it can be even in times of dark.

Clouds of Leonia by Eileen Shaloum: 2nd

Sweetness and happiness spills out of the canvas creating an imaginary world. Soft plump shades of pink yellows and green fill the surface taking the eye on a magical journey from one canvas to the back, and back again. Layers upon layers allows the viewer to be mesmerized by the technique, color palette, and suggested imagery.

Island Flora by Sally Cooper: 3rd

Light, airy, and fragrant! The playfulness of brushstrokes and energy of the paint create a fresh feeling. The title adding to the essence of what was is already felt intuitively from the canvas. A great balance of color and mark-making.

From Another Time by Mary Martinez: Honorable Mention

The viewer is transported from the glance of the women to another time, a moment in ones memory. Nostalgic and with classical beauty the woman’s pose captures all this. The playful watercolor technique merged with the classic pose was a brilliant choice.

Tiger Falls by Betty Lou Barry: Special Recognition

This utopia, a paradise view is a reflection to what we strive for in society and with mother nature. As we look to one another in peace, in harmony, in question with our world; working together side by side we go about our way. Folklike, excellent craftsmanship, and illustration.

Dream Journey by Priscilla Blum Silverberg: Honorable Mention

Pulled straight into what’s just hidden in the shadow. The feeling of wanting to know what’s there, along with the gorgeous textured rock fills the senses and imagination. The painterly brushstrokes juxtaposed to the great tension of the still darkness, moves the viewers eye around the canvas in a hypnotic dreamlike way.

– Lori Arbel, Juror
