Artist Statement

“Nonobjective painting allows free expression of emotions, feelings and individuality. My work is about a creative process rather than a specific image or place. Following intuitive promptings I apply a vigorous gestural linear mark or brush stroke that comes from deep within. The surface is built, destroyed and erased again and again creating a subtle and sensitive history to what has been. This play continues until from chaos a painting evolves.”

Bio

Sally Cooper has been painting all her life and began actively pursuing her creative talents in the late eighties. In 1990 she was awarded an annual Art Award from Broward Community College. In the mid nineties she moved from detailed representational work and began to seek the abstract. By 2000 image reference was left behind and her style evolved into explosions of color, markings and movement. Her work has been included in numerous regional and competitive exhibitions receiving awards in most.

She was awarded First Place in 2004 and 2017, Second Place in 2006, Third Place 2016 and Honorable Mention in 2010, 2013, and 2014 in The Artist's Magazine's national competitions. In May 2015 her painting Blue Horizon was chosen for the cover of The Artist's Magazine along with a feature article. She has been published in Acrylic Artist and Professional Artist Magazines. She is a Signature member of the National Watercolor Society and has just received news that she won the prestigious Three DickBlick Purchase Award for her painting “Crossing Paths” in the 2023 NWS 103rd International Open Exhibition valued at $3,250. In 2017 her work was chosen for publication in Art Journey Abstract Painting, A Celebration of Contemporary Art. She is a member of Chroma Paints Independent Teaching Program for their Atelier Interactive acrylic paints and mediums. She currently teaches Abstract Painting online. She is a juror, facilitates workshops and gives demonstrations for various art guilds throughout the State of Florida. # Palm Beach Watercolor Society UPCOMING WORKSHOP

FEARLESS WATERCOLORS

FEARLESS WATERCOLORS at
The Palm Beach Watercolor Society

IN-PERSON & ON-LINE WORKSHOP

Paint Skies, Land, Architecture, Water & Reflections

Tues, Feb, 20th - Lighthouse & Wed, Feb 21st - Bridge

10-12 noon, break, 1-3pm, critique 3-4pm

Members $250; Non-Members $290

I was once you ... seeking and searching for teachers, classes, workshops, dvds, books, magazines, on-line sites - anyone, anywhere to help me find myself in this incredible medium. I wanted to learn whatever I could to advance my art. Sometimes I was elated on what happened in a class, but mostly it led to disappointment - BUT there were pearls worthy of holding onto and integrating into my work.

It was from that very frustration I created my classes - based on what I needed as a student and didn't get. I took the very best of these opportunities and created my workshops and classes - with an array of techniques in painting in watercolors and as an instructor as well.

You may not know me, but I know you. As a student I understand what you wish to get from a workshop and as a teacher I know how to deliver it. I welcome you join me on an amazing 2 day workshop that will be filled with the best of the best. It will be tangible and is meant to be adaptable to enhance your own work.

This program is a culmination of techniques I've discovered and practice in every class and workshop:

- Basic supply setup
- Color Wheel - how to use analogous and complimentary colors
- Learn why you get mud paintings
- Color Temperature - light, warmth, cool & shadows
- 2 Magic Ingredients - learn the intelligence of watercolors
- Soft & Hard Edges - where and why
- Develop your Impact Area
- Easy Composition
- Correction Techniques
- Embrace Blossoms, Drips & Splatters
- ... and more

all while painting Skies, Land, Architecture, Water & Reflections

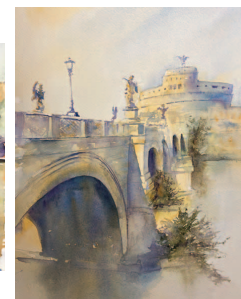

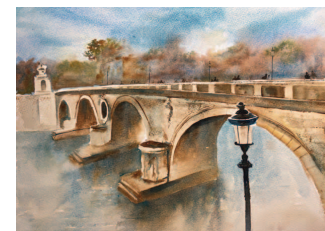

You will receive my reference photo, my contour drawing and at the end you will have the recording and my final painting to help you along.

Ask the WATERCOLOR DOCTOR

by Carol Z. Brody NWS, TWSA
czbrody@carolzbrody.com
www.carolzbrody.com

I was stunned and greatly saddened last week to learn of the passing of Joe Miller, alias Cheap Joe, on Sept. 6. He was 84 years young and was a force in the life of so many of us in the art world! For those of you who are not familiar with CHEAP JOES ART STUFF, I'll give a brief background here. Joe Miller had originally intended to become a taxidermist, but then went on to become a pharmacist at Boone Drugs, in Boone, NC, his hometown. During his early years, he became interested in art and opened a small art supply business in the corner of the store, jokingly calling it Cheap Joes Art Stuff. The art business took off like lightning and now has become one of the largest catalogue and online art supply companies in the country, if not the world!

In addition, Joe was a ubiquitous presence at art conventions around the country, meeting and chatting with everyone, which he truly loved doing. He ultimately had three stores and began holding workshops at his Boone facility, inviting well known artists to conduct them. He sponsored awards for countless organizations, and he began a program called "Brushes for Vincent" (Van Gogh), through which he donated art supplies to needy children. Joe himself took up watercolors and went onto achieve Dolphin Fellow status in the American Watercolor Society!

My earliest experience with Cheap Joe's was about 45 years ago, when, on the suggestion of a fellow artist, I ordered some supplies from him. At the time his business was so new that the credit card statement said "Boone Drugs," which I thought was a mistake and refused to pay. A month later, I received a bill in the mail, saying Boone Drugs on the top in large letters, and Cheap Joes's Art Stuff underneath in small letters. What a surprise!

Joe's friends and workers liked to refer to him as "Our Fearless Leader," which was a very appropriate title, don't you think? Cheap Joes Art Stuff will continue to be run by his son and granddaughter, who have long been involved in the business. May Joe be smiling with satisfaction at the knowledge that he had made such a huge impact on so many lives!

Please keep sending your questions to me at czbrody@carolzbrody.com. I'd love to hear from you!
