Dear Fellow Artists,

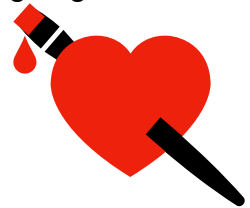

We took in the show at the Crest Theater at Old School Square. The walls look amazing. The quality of the work of our artists is outstanding.

It is important to support your fellow artists. It is important to study the work of your fellow artists as we learn from each other. I hope to see you at the receptions for our shows. You can bring friends and family. Chat with your fellow artists who are in the show, Find out what stirs them to paint the way that they do. The reception at the Crest Theater is on Wednesday, January 29th from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. I'm looking forward to seeing you there.

For new members it is a way to meet some of our members. Anytime we gather at meetings or receptions or events such as our annual luncheon we get to know each other and make new friends. The Zoom meetings are fun when you get online early and can speak to each other. Come early to the Zoom meetings and get to speak to each other. There are usually many lively discussions going on from 5:45 - 6:30 before the meeting starts.

Art is Love..... It's February the month of Love
Keep those brushes wet and juicy.

MEET OUR FEBRUARY DEMO ARTIST

FEBRUARY 13th 2025, Member Meeting Via Zoom

Pam Wenger

Pam Wenger is a Pennsylvania artist, best known for her portrait and figurative watercolor work. Her work has been exhibited and won awards in Local, National, and International shows and she has also had artwork displayed in National and International Art Publications.

Pam teaches watercolor workshops and presents demonstrations for local and national art organizations.

She works with a very transparent palette of watercolors and paints exclusively on hot press paper. One of the things that drew her to watercolor was the spontaneous look that an artist can achieve if a subject is not overworked. Drawing is very important to her and is a passion that ties in nicely with what she calls her “quick sketch” watercolors, usually drawn freehand and painted in a short amount of time.

Painting portraits in watercolor can seem like a daunting task, but many of us can't resist the urge to try it. We may have a loved one who we'd like to paint or we may simply be drawn to the challenge of capturing an interesting character on paper. It's so easy to “tighten up” our portrait paintings because of our focus on “getting it right”.

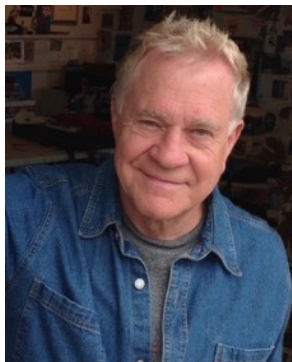

In this demo, Pam will focus on sharing how to loosen up the portrait painting process and working to achieve a more relaxed look that highlights the beauty and freshness of the watercolor medium. She'll share her 3 step process for tackling any portrait painting.

REMINDER: We have video recordings of monthly meeting demos and workshops. If you are a member, there is no fee for the monthly meeting demo recordings. The fee for guests is $25 for one meeting demo recording.

If you attended a workshop and the workshop was recorded by PBWS with permission from the artist ~ and you would like a copy of the video recording the fee is $15 for 1 day, $30 for 2 days, and $45 for 3 days.

If you did not attend the workshop the fee for the video recording is $75 for 1 day, $150 for 2 days, and $225 for 3 days. The monies will go towards our scholarship fund.

TWO DAY WORKSHOP

Bob Burrridge

Painting Loose Florals & Landscapes
Two Days of Intense Fun!
Via Zoom

February 19th and 20th, 2025

11:00 am - 1:00 pm - lunch break - 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm

Abstract Florals from Loose, Colorful Splatters

Paint modern, loose abstract florals that sell like crazy. Learn the secrets of Monet and others as you turn those colorful splashes into quick little gems. These Burrridge “daily warmups.” Playing with wild colors, you will paint loose starts into little beauties.

You will learn how to make a vase of abstract flowers from a mess, using reductive painting techniques. We will work with different vase shapes, styles and learn how to paint stems and water!

Loose Abstract Landscapes

Paint with free rein and learn to run wild with looser landscape painting. Learn quick spontaneity with your imagination for maximum effect! Paint warm-up exercises using Bob's four favorite basic compositions: Horizontal, Tunnel, Asymmetrical and Golden Section.

We will work with black and white acrylic paint to learn structure and value. Then switch to color, using both transparent and opaque acrylics.

If you are looking for more fun, this is for you! Burrridge's positive, fearless and supportive approach inspires everyone to paint with endless possibilities.

Burrridge will provide many demos, critiques, and painting time. This workshop is appropriate for all levels. Handouts will be emailed.

I was once you ... seeking and searching for teachers, classes, workshops, dvds, books, magazines, on-line sites - anyone, anywhere to help me find myself in this incredible medium. I wanted to learn whatever I could to advance my art. Sometimes I was elated on what happened in a class, but mostly it lead to disappointment - BUT there were pearls worthy of holding onto and integrating into my work.

It was from that very frustration I created my classes - based on what I needed as a student and didn't get. I took the very best of these opportunities and created my workshops and classes - with an array of techniques in painting in watercolors and as an instructor as well.

You may not know me, but I know you. As a student I understand what you wish to get from a workshop and as a teacher I know how to deliver it. I welcome you join me on an amazing 2 day workshop that will be filled with the best of the best. It will be tangible and is meant to be adaptable to enhance your own work.

This program is a culmination of techniques I've discovered and practice in every class and workshop:

- Basic supply setup
- Color Wheel - how to use analogous and complimentary colors
- Learn why you get muddy paintings and how to avoid it
- Color Temperature - light, warmth, cool & shadows
- 2 Magic Ingredients - learn the intelligence of watercolors
- Soft & Hard Edges - where and why
- Develop your Impact Area
- Easy Composition
- Correction Techniques
- Embrace Blossoms, Drips & Splatters ... and more

all while painting beautiful male and female cardinals & water lilies

You will receive my reference photo, my contour drawing and at the end you will have the recording and my final painting to help you along.

“ART IN ME” AWARDS

Crest Theatre • Delray Beach, FL • January 22, 2025 • Judge: Gina Carter

FIRST PLACE Judy Nunno, “Waiting”

“This first-place winning piece is a mesmerizing portrait that captures the soul and essence of its subject with breathtaking realism. Each delicate brushstroke weaves a story of time, resilience, and quiet grace as if the artist has gently brought life onto the paper. The sheer mastery of technique, paired with an undeniable emotional depth, makes this portrait a beautiful testament to the beauty of the human spirit.”

SECOND PLACE Lee Krull, “Mosaic Muse”

This painting caught my eye and piqued my interest in the varied and sumptuous patterning. While the image is almost instantly recognizable, I was still fascinated at looking at the colors and patterns.

THIRD PLACE Janet Kaplan, “Kaleidoscope”

“This delightful watercolor captured my eye as well as my imagination, reminiscent of looking through a child’s toy, it is beautifully executed in precise brushwork.”

The subject matter plays off well with the rigid and angular composition, creating a lovely balance.”

HONORABLE MENTION Elaine Litvak “City Street”

“An exciting cityscape with a pleasing and gentle palette that created a visual interest that drew me in. I felt you could almost feel the energy of a busy city in the bold brushstrokes and textures.”

HONORABLE MENTION Bobbin Salisbury “Bouton d’Or”

“The stylized flower in vibrant hues of warm colors set against the very fluid cool background drew me in to discover all the nuances and textures. A beautifully rendered abstract image that left me with a sense of infinite interpretations and wonder.”

JUDGE’S RECOGNITION Linda Landers “Grateful”

“This delicate and quiet painting, beckoned to me like a precious jewel. The precise and careful rendering of the foliage set against the billowy and bright flower petals invited me in to take a moment to admire its quiet beauty.”

JUDGE’S REMARKS: “It has been inspiring to experience the remarkable talent and creativity showcased in the “Art in Me” exhibition. The talent and dedication evident in every work reflect not only artistic excellence but also a deep passion for the craft. As the judge, I am deeply moved by the unique perspectives and artistic voices that have come together in this space. I am amazed by the unique perspectives and techniques brought to life by these talented individuals. The Delray Beach Creative Arts School is honored to host this exhibition and to provide a place where artists can share their work, connect with the community, and inspire us all. We are proud to celebrate their artistry and look forward to continuing to champion the creative spirit that makes our community so vibrant.”— Gina Carter

Ask the WATERCOLOR DOCTOR

by Carol Z. Brody NWS, TWSA
czbrody@carolzbrody.com
www.carolzbrody.com

QUESTION: I am an artist, and I'm eager to sell my work. Are there any "art" scams out there which I should be aware of?

ANSWER: That's a very pertinent question, because the answer is yes! Over the years I have received dozens of them, and they're still coming! They are phony but dangerous "inquiries" about my work, and some of you are probably getting them as well. Here's the way it works.

The person typically sends you an email with a very odd greeting, saying something like "Good Day" or "Greetings." That should arouse your suspicion right away. He usually says that his "wife" (or even he) came across your work or your website and wants to know the prices of some of your pieces.

Sometimes the paintings are named, but not always. He is usually moving to Europe or somewhere far away. He says he will send you a bank check, in advance, for the pieces, including shipping costs. This all sounds good so far, right? But here is the way it works.

He will ask you to let him know what the shipping costs are. Then he will send you a "bank check," in advance, for much more than the costs were, asking you to ship the work and then refund the excess amount to him. After you send off your painting, deposit his check and send him his refund, you find out (sometimes weeks later) that the "bank check" was in fact not valid! Now you've lost your painting and your refund money, which could be a large sum. That's the way he makes his living!

How can you recognize these scams? First of all, the scammer never seems to comment about the qualities of your work or of any individual painting. Sometimes he won't even mention any painting by name. Then, often it's the wife who is supposedly interested in your work, which she supposedly saw on your website. In addition, they're always moving to another continent. Finally, the written English of the email seems awkward or old fashioned to our ears, compared to our style of writing. We don't begin an email with "Greetings."

I know these offers seem very tempting, but do not, under any circumstances fall for them. Too many artists have done so and have been burned!

Please keep sending your questions to me at czbrody@carolzbrody.com.
I'd love to hear from you!
